Short Biography: Mirillis is an Astrocorsair who joined the pirate faction Spiral Syndicate at around 18. On their home planet, their parents had contracted them into an arranged marriage with a fellow Akgahni. Extremely uninterested in that scenario, Mirillis opted to stow away on a Syndicate ship and began a life of exploration and mild criminality. They view crime as necessary for the greater good; their freedom from familial oppression. They want to explore the universe, make their fortune and carve a path free from responsibility.
